ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

Indiana Association for Healthcare Quality, Incorporated

Policy and Procedure Manual

I. Membership

A. Purpose

To clearly define the Bylaws, ARTICLE III, regarding membership, dues and distribution of money.

B. Types of Membership

1. Individual Membership

- a. Granted to those individuals who are involved in professional health care quality activities;
- b. Annual dues are determined by the Board of Directors and payable according to ARTICLE IV of the Bylaws. Effective with the payment of dues for the year 2005, dues are amended to $45.00 annually.
- c. New memberships received during the last quarter of the year will be credited toward the next year's membership.

2. Honorary Membership

- a. Granted to those individuals who have been approved by the Board of Directors as having rendered outstanding service to InAHQ or are not otherwise eligible for membership.
- b. All honorary members will be presented a plaque in appreciation for their service to the organization at the Annual Meeting for the year in which they are inducted.
- c. Honorary membership constitutes a paid lifetime membership only and no other gratuities are inferred.

C. Region of Membership

1. Regional membership will be determined by the mailing address of the member's employer.
2. Any members not employed or employed by a national employer will be assigned a region based on their home address.
3. Although each member is assigned to a region, members may attend and be active in any region throughout the state.

II. Board of Directors

A. Purpose

The Board of Directors conducts the business of the InAHQ between the Annual Meetings.

1. After each InAHQ Board meeting, "Board Bullets" will be compiled and distributed to all membership one week after the meeting via blast email and posted on the InAHQ Website.
2. InAHQ members can submit questions to the InAHQ Board at any time via the InAHQ Website, email to any Board member or written correspondence. The questions and answers will be posted in the Q-Tips newsletter under "Ask Your Board".

B. Membership: The following are members of the Board of Directors

1. Officers
2. Regional Representatives at Large
3. Team Leaders

C. Duties and Responsibilities

1. Duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors are outlined in the InAHQ Bylaws under ARTICLES V, VI, X, XI, and XII.
2. Further and clearer definitions of the duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors members follow in these Policies and Procedures under Section III, IV, and VI.
3. In addition to those referenced above, the Board of Director members:
 - a. Shall maintain membership in the state (InAHQ) and if an elected officer, shall maintain membership in the national (NAHQ) organization. If the elected officer of InAHQ is not a member of the NAHQ at the time of being elected, the newly elected officer will become a member of the NAHQ within sixty (60) days of being elected.
 - b. Shall not expend any money not provided for in the budget as adopted, except by approval of the Board of Directors; and,
 - c. Shall submit annually a budget request. This request will be submitted by the Fall Board of Director's meeting for the following calendar year.
4. If absent from two consecutive meetings without just cause, the Board of Director's member shall be deemed as failing to perform the duties of her/his office and may be removed from office and replaced.

III. Officers

A. Purpose

To identify the officers and define the duties and responsibilities of each officer.

B. Officers of the InAHQ are as follows:

1. President
2. President-Elect
3. Secretary
4. Treasurer
5. Past-President

C. Definition, Term and Duties and Responsibilities of each Officer are:

1. President

The President is an elected officer of the InAHQ as set forth in ARTICLE V of the InAHQ Bylaws. The term of office will be one year. The President-Elect will assume the office of President at the close of the InAHQ Annual Meeting one year after being elected President-Elect.

a. President's Duties and Responsibilities

- 1) Serve as leader of the Board of Directors and preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, House of Delegates, and InAHQ. Conduct meetings according to Parliamentary Procedure as defined in the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order.
- 2) Support the purposes, aims, and ideals of the InAHQ and NAHQ.
- 3) Schedule and plan agenda for scheduled Board of Directors, House of Delegates, and InAHQ meetings.
- 4) May call a special meeting in the event of a reason deemed appropriate by the President and/or upon request of three or more officers, or three or more Regional Representative at Large, or by majority of the Board of Directors, or by written petition signed by not less than one-seventh (1/7) of all members authorized to vote by the Articles of Incorporation. Notice of the meeting shall be mailed to all members no less than fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting. (See ARTICLE VIII of the Bylaws).
- 5) Confirm that a quorum is present before beginning a Board of Directors meeting.
- 6) Compile and present a list of appointees for Team Leaders of all standing and ad hoc teams for Board of Directors' approval.
- 7) Prepare and send a welcome letter to each new Board member after the annual meeting.
- 8) Act as Board of Directors' liaison to the Regional Representative at Large, Bylaws Team, and Education Team. Is considered an ex officio member of all teams except the Nominating Team.
- 9) Supervise the activities of InAHQ and attend to usual duties of the office.
- 10) Conduct an annual member survey asking questions deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors to achieve input from members to aid in building the Strategic Plan for the InAHQ.
- 11) With the members of the Board of Directors, prepare a Strategic Plan with a range of three (3) calendar years to present at the Annual Meeting to the House of Delegates for approval.
- 12) Assure adherence to the InAHQ Bylaws and Policies and Procedures by being familiar with them.
- 13) Maintain an active interest and communicate or visit with Regional Representatives at Large and, as needed, with all Team Leaders.
- 14) Promote, with the assistance of the Board of Directors, National Healthcare Quality Week held in October of each year. Solicit, with the help of the Regional Representatives at Large, the activities performed in Indiana's health care facilities and other opportunities to promote the week. Distribute a HC quality poster developed by the marketing team electronically to other state presidents and NAHQ leadership.
- 15) Maintain a positive liaison with other health-related organizations (Indiana Hospital Association, Indiana Health Information Management Association, Health Care Excel, etc.), within the state and work toward mutual goals.

- 16) Represent InAHQ as a delegate to the NAHQ Annual Leadership Council meeting as specified in the NAHQ Affiliated State Guidelines. Expenses are reimbursed by InAHQ. (See ARTICLE XIV of the InAHQ Bylaws).
- 17) Report to NAHQ regarding Membership/Affiliation in February.
- 18) Notify all nominees of election results prior to the Annual Meeting.
- 19) Prepare a President's message for each edition of the InAHQ newsletter - Q-tips.
- 20) Prepare and present a report of activities for each Board of Directors' meeting.
- 21) Prepare and present a report of the year's activities for the annual meeting of the House of Delegates.
- 22) Along with the Past-President for the next fiscal year, prepare the materials for the NAHQ State Association Award and submit them to NAHQ for consideration of the award. This distinction is awarded annually by NAHQ, but if the State Association wins the coveted Gold Award, the Association is not eligible to submit an entry for a period of three (3) years.
- 23) At the end of the term of office and before July 15, meet with the Past-President, current treasurer, and the outgoing treasurer if applicable, to review financial standing of the Association.
- 24) Pass on all records and properties of the InAHQ to the succeeding President.

2. President-Elect

The President-Elect is an elected officer of the InAHQ, as set forth in ARTICLE VII of the InAHQ Bylaws. The term of office is one year and takes effect at the close of the Annual Meeting of InAHQ. The President-Elect assumes the duties of President at the close of the next Annual Meeting of the InAHQ.

a. President-Elect Duties and Responsibilities

- 1) Participate in all meetings of the Board of Directors, House of Delegates, and InAHQ, serving as a voting member. If unable to attend, the officer is to select a proxy for voting purposes.
- 2) Support the purposes, aims, and ideals of the InAHQ and NAHQ.
- 3) Become familiar with the InAHQ Bylaws and Policies and Procedures.
- 4) Present a report to the Board of Directors at each meeting.
- 5) Submit information for the newsletter quarterly, including articles outlining Board of Directors' meeting activities.
- 6) Prepare an annual report for submission to the President to be included in the Annual Meeting packet.
- 7) Serve as Leader of the Policies and Procedures Team.
- 8) Maintain the InAHQ Website.
- 9) Serve as consulting member of the Marketing Team.
- 10) Perform the duties of President in the event of the President's temporary absence.
- 11) Assume all duties of the President if the President is unable to fulfill the term of office, if the resignation occurs within the 2nd six-months of the President's term.
- 12) If the President-Elect is not able to fulfill the term of office, a special election will be held.

- 13) Represent InAHQ as a delegate to the NAHQ Annual Leadership Council meeting as specified in the NAHQ Affiliated State Guidelines. Expenses are reimbursed by InAHQ. (See ARTICLE XIV of the InAHQ Bylaws).
- 14) Along with the new Past-President for the next fiscal year, prepare the materials for the NAHQ State Association Award and submit them to NAHQ for consideration of the award.
- 15) Prepare the exhibit booths for vendor display and presentation at the National Association for Healthcare Quality annual meeting and other vendor displays as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors. (See Attachment B - Specifics of Exhibit/Vendor Displays).

- 8) Provide consultation to the President.
- 9) At the beginning of the term as Past-President and before July 15, meet with the President, Treasurer and outgoing treasurer if appropriate, to review financial standing of the Association.

IV. Regional Representative at Large

A. General Composition, Purpose and Membership

1. As established in ARTICLE XIII, SECTIONS 1-6 of the InAHQ Bylaws, members of each of the three (3) geographic regions will select one Regional Representative at Large to coordinate the educational and administrative affairs of the Association within her/his region and to act as spokesperson for the members of the region to the Board of Directors. The term of office is one year and takes effect at the close of the Annual Meeting. Multiple consecutive terms are acceptable and regions may have co-representatives - without additional vote. (Refer to InAHQ Bylaws, ARTICLE XIII, SECTION 2. E.) See Section XII. Regional Representative at Large Orientation and Section XIII. Mentor and Attachment C.)

B. Board of Directors' Duties and Responsibilities

1. Serve as a voting member of the Board of Directors and represent the members of her/his region at all Board of Directors meetings and at the Annual Meeting. Every effort should be made to attend or send a designee to all Board of Directors meetings. If the representative cannot attend the meetings, a designee from the region will be sent in proxy.
2. Prepare a written report of region activities, ideas and concerns. This report will be presented at each Board of Directors meeting. CEU offerings are encouraged and when they exist,

- reports to the board will include a copy of the completed and approved NAHQ CEU certification form.
3. Prepare a summary report of the region's activities at the end of the year and submit to the President for inclusion in the Annual Meeting packet.

C. Duties and responsibilities to the Region

1. Serve as leader or president to the members of the Region - as members designate.
2. Since each region is encouraged to hold at least three (3) meetings each year, the Regional Representatives at Large will coordinate these in a manner acceptable to each geographic region. CEU offerings are encouraged. (See ARTICLE XIII, SECTION 6 of the InAHQ Bylaws). Submit application to NAHQ for continuing education hours that will be offered and follow up as required (send attendee list to NAHQ within 30 days of completion of the educational offering).
3. Receive information from Credentials Team on current membership. Remind members to renew membership.
4. Provide a region membership list to all regional membership annually.
5. Solicit membership in the region. Develop recruitment and retention processes. Welcome new members.
6. Recommend candidates for region representative at large to the President, if the position will be vacated.
7. Coordinate information sharing from the region to the Board of Directors and Team Leaders, when they cannot attend a Board of Directors meeting.
8. See that delegates to the Annual Meeting are elected or selected. Send information to the Credentials Team Leader by the deadline specified. Inform delegates of duties at the Annual Meeting.
9. Purchase attendance prizes (basket-approximately $50 value) for the InAHQ Annual Meeting-complete an Expense statement Form (See Attachment A) and submitting it to the Treasurer for reimbursement.
10. Keep region informed of Board of Directors activities.
11. Submit information quarterly to the Q-Tips newsletter regarding regional activities.
12. Recommend to the President a representative to serve on the InAHQ Standing Teams.

V. Standing Teams and Team Leaders

A. Purpose

The InAHQ shall have standing and ad hoc teams. After recommendations from current team chairs and/or volunteers, the President appoints the Leader and members of all teams, subject to approval by the Board of Directors. See ARTICLE XII of the InAHQ Bylaws. Team Leaders are voting members of the Board of Directors.

B. Standing Teams Outlined

1. Bylaws Team

As established in ARTICLE XII of the InAHQ Bylaws, the Bylaws team shall be a standing team of InAHQ. - 7) Prepare an annual report to be included in the Annual Meeting packet.
- 8) Maintain supplies and historical data of the Team.

2. Credentials Team

As established in ARTICLE XII of the InAHQ Bylaws, the Credentials Team shall be a standing team of InAHQ. The Team has the responsibility for maintaining the membership list and for ensuring that each delegate who presents herself/himself at any meeting of the state delegates is, indeed, a member in good standing in the state association and is also the designee of the regional association. New Team members shall be appointed to the next scheduled Board of Directors meeting following the Annual Meeting.

- a. Composition of the Credentials Team
 - 1) The Leader (Co-Leader) shall be appointed each year by the President following the conclusion of the InAHQ Annual Meeting. The appointment is subject to ratification by the InAHQ Board of Directors.
 - 2) Additional Team members are interested members who volunteer and are appointed by the President. One member from each region is suggested.

- b. Credential Team's Duties and Responsibilities
 - 1) Distribute annual membership cards to all paid members.
 - 2) Provide to the Nominating Team Leader a current membership list as of March 31st of each year. This list shall be forwarded by the second week of April.
 - 3) Prepare an Annual Meeting mailing list as determined in conjunction with the Education Team and the Board of Directors.
 - 4) Assist with membership recruitment activities during the Annual Meeting.
 - 5) Verify the active InAHQ membership status of the slate of nominees for the annual general election.
 - 6) Determine the number of delegates to the Annual Meeting to be elected from each region. One delegate and one alternate per every five (5) members with a minimum of one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate for each region.
 - 7) Verify the active membership status of the delegates attending the Annual Meeting and identify those qualified to vote.
 - 8) Conduct the registration process at the Annual Meeting. The team will ask the InAHQ member attendees at the Annual Meeting to verify current address and email addresses.
 - 9) Review and submit revisions of Team procedures to the Policies and Procedures Team annually.
 - 10) Become familiar with the InAHQ Bylaws and Policies and Procedures.

- c. Credentials Team Leader's Duties and Responsibilities

- c) A three-five year succession plan will be maintained.

XVI. Conflict of Interest

A. Purpose

The Board of Directors ("Board") of the Indiana Association for Healthcare Quality (InAHQ) seeks to create and sustain an ethical business climate, which is critical to the success of the organization and in the best interests of the members of InAHQ. Each Board of Director and Officer must observe the highest standards of ethical business conduct, including strict adherence to this policy. This statement of policy with respect to conflict of interest applies to all InAHQ

Directors and Officers. It is intended to serve as guidance for each Director and Officer.

B. Fiduciary Responsibilities/Disclosures

1. Board of Directors and Officers should recognize their fundamental responsibility to the organization, and exercise good faith in all transactions and matters in which they are involved and which involve the InAHQ Organization. In their dealings with and on behalf of InAHQ, their judgments and determinations shall be guided by the rule of honest and fair dealings.
2. Board of Directors and Officers shall disclose any involvement or interest which they may have in connection with a matter if such involvement or interest competes with or is in conflict with the interest of the InAHQ.
3. Board of Directors and Officers will excuse themselves from discussions and votes where they have a conflict of interest.
4. Board of Directors and Officers shall annually sign the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form. See Attachment H
5. Forms will be maintained according to the Record Retention Policy.

XVII. Complaint Policy

If any member reasonably believes that some policy, practice, or activity of the Indiana Association of Healthcare Quality (InAHQ) is in violation of law, a written complaint must be filed by that member with the President, or the President-Elect if the alleged violation is being committed solely by the President.

1. It is the intent of InAHQ to adhere to all laws and regulations that apply to the organization and the underlying purpose of this policy is to support the organization's goal of legal compliance. The support of all members is necessary to achieve compliance with various laws and regulations. A member is protected from retaliation only if the member brings the alleged unlawful activity, policy, or practice to the attention of InAHQ and provides InAHQ with a reasonable opportunity to investigate and correct the alleged unlawful activity. The protection described below is only available to members that comply with this requirement.
2. InAHQ will not retaliate against a member who in good faith, has made a protest or raised a complaint against some practice of the InAHQ, or of another individual or entity with whom the InAHQ has a business relationship, on the basis of a reasonable belief that the practice is in violation of law, or a clear mandate of public policy.
3. InAHQ will not retaliate against members who disclose or threaten to disclose to a supervisor or a public body, any activity, policy, or practice of InAHQ that the member reasonably believes is in violation of a law, or a rule, or regulation mandated pursuant to law or is in violation of a clear mandate or public policy concerning the health, safety, welfare, or protection of the environment.
